

69.º Premios Ondas

Radio Barcelona

SER

Ondas Awards 2022

Rules

ONDAS

OBJECT

The Ondas Awards were created in 1954 and are held annually by Promotora de Informaciones S.A. (PRISA) through Cadena SER's Radio Barcelona station to award both the quality and popularity of productions, as well as careers in radio, television, music and radio advertising.

There are five sections in the Ondas Awards: National Radio, National Radio Advertising, National Television, National Music, International Radio and International Television. The following rules apply to all of the categories.

Since its very beginning, the intention was to adapt the awards' objectives to the new scenarios arising from the constant evolution taking place in the world of communication.

The awards' main objectives are:

- Promoting and rewarding national and international radio, music and television production in all genres and formats.
- Publicising new trends in programmes with major audiences in all genres: news, drama, entertainment, etc.
- Encouraging productions that contribute innovative elements and that improve and enrich the radio and television experience, and which count on considerable audience interaction through joint or separate use of analogue and digital formats.

The General Secretary is responsible for checking that all of the programmes entered are in accordance with these rules. Programmes that do not comply with the above rules cannot be entered for this year's Ondas Awards.

REGISTRATION FEE

There is no registration fee for organisations that enter.

ACCEPTANCE OF THE RULES

Submission of entries for the Ondas Awards implies unreserved acceptance of these rules.

These rules are published in English and Spanish. In addition to Spanish, the official languages of the Ondas Awards are French and English.

MODIFICATIONS TO RULES

Some elements of the current rules may be altered during the period entries are received; however, participants will be notified of any changes as soon as possible.

JURIES

Different juries will be formed, each with five members: Radio, Television, Advertising, Music and International. Each Jury will choose its Chairperson, who will ensure the internal rules and regulations approved by the General Secretary of the Ondas Awards are applied.

All of the juries will be made up of representatives of different sectors: radio and television organisations, communication experts, critics and professionals.

Decisions will be taken by majority vote. The Chairperson will have the deciding vote on any matter in the event of a tie. During discussions the Chairperson may propose any type of measure to help ensure the fairest application and interpretation of these rules.

The juries' decisions are final and cannot be appealed.

The juries' meetings will be held behind closed doors and their discussions shall remain secret.

THE JURY'S DECISION

The juries' decisions regarding the winners of the Ondas Awards will be made public at a press conference once the work sessions have ended.

The radio and television companies or organizations that have taken part will be notified afterwards.

AWARDS CEREMONY

The awards ceremony shall take place in Barcelona in the month of November at a date to be decided.

Each of the Ondas Awards consists of an exclusively created trophy in the shape of a winged horse, which is identified and numbered, as well as a diploma of honour.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF THE TROPHY AND ITS REPLICAS

This statement wishes to inform whoever it may concern that Radio Barcelona is the exclusive owner of the rights of use of Intellectual Property of the original trophy, in all its forms, versions and replicas – and as such, this is to hereby declare its rights thereupon, not limited in scope to its right of reproduction, distribution, public communication, and modifications or transformations thereof – by any media or support, tangible or intangible, currently known or to be developed at any future time, whether totally, partially, jointly or solely and in any format, medium, modality, system, device and/or technology and for the duration thereby established in current Intellectual Property Laws worldwide.

Thus, any copy or reproduction by any graphic, mechanical, electronic, reprographic, digital or any other kind of system, the distribution, public communication thereof, or indeed making the above mentioned trophy and its replicas available and altering or transforming them by any means or support, whether tangible or intangible, currently known or to be invented in the future, whether wholly or in part, jointly or solely as well as in any format, medium, modality, system, device and technology by the winner of the award or by any other third party or legal entity of the original trophy, its versions and replicas, is strictly prohibited. Notwithstanding the aforementioned, at the request of the winner or winners of said trophy, Radio Barcelona may authorize individually the reproduction of replica/s of the original trophy for the rest of the producers or participants. The cost of such replicas will not be born in any case by Radio Barcelona.
